Login Page

AnchorPane

LOGIN

user: TextField
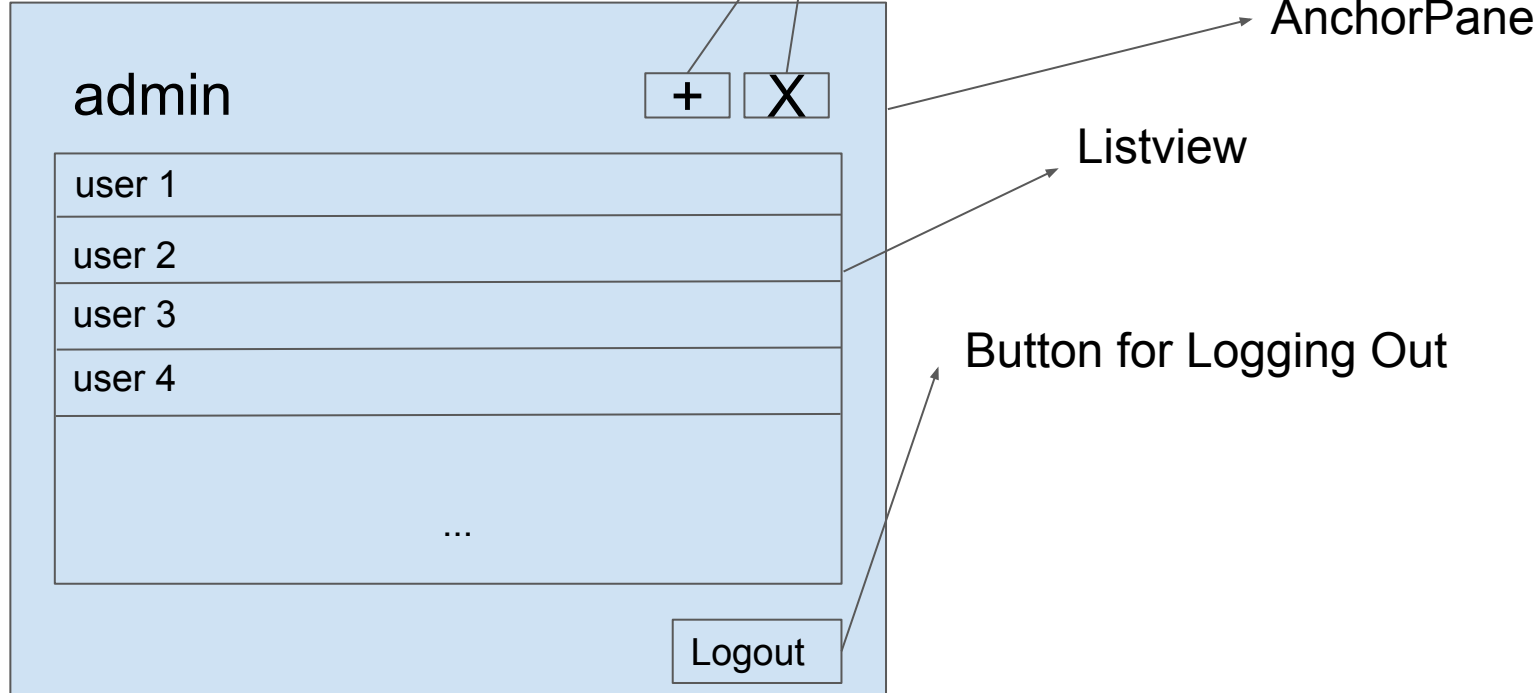

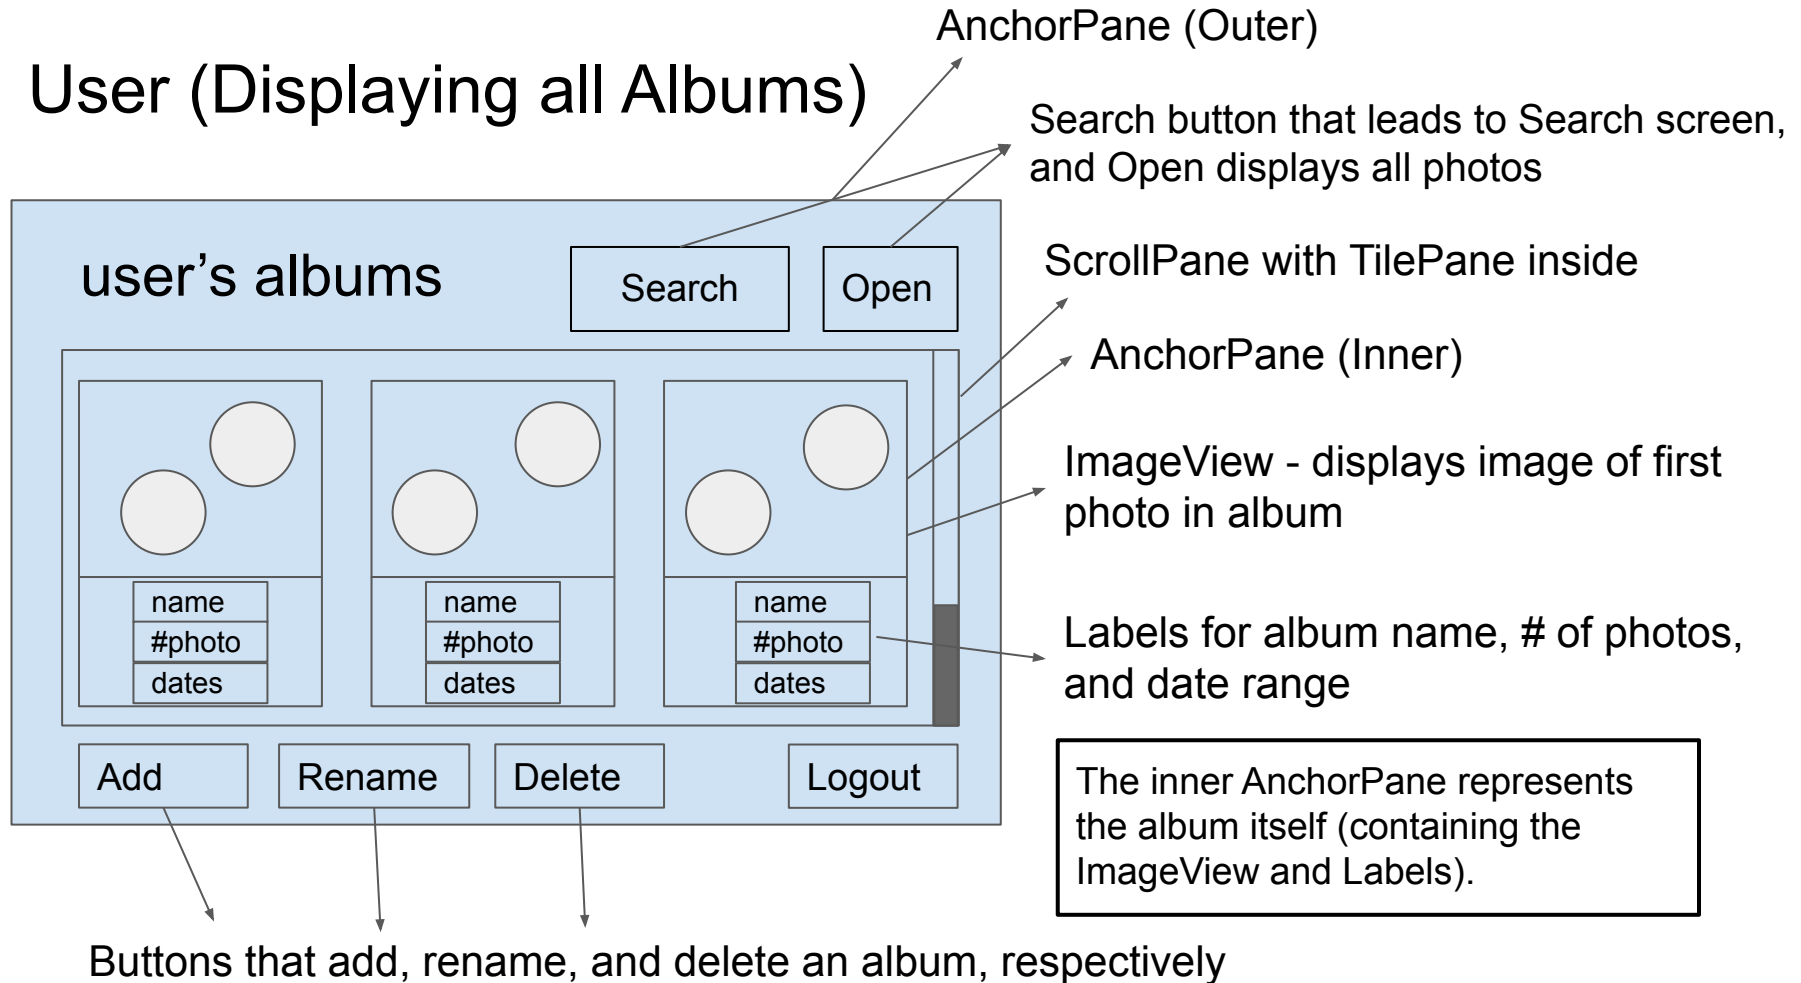

Once the application starts, the user will first see this.
- The Textield will be empty at first.
- If they input "admin," they will go to the admin system.
- If they input a valid user they will see the user's albums.

Admin Subsystem

Buttons for "add user" and "delete user, respectively

AnchorPane

admin   + X

Listview

user 1
user 2
user 3
user 4
...

Button for Logging Out

Logout

User (Displaying all Albums)

AnchorPane (Outer)

Search button that leads to Search screen, and Open displays all photos

ScrollPane with TilePane inside

AnchorPane (Inner)

ImageView - displays image of first photo in album

Labels for album name, # of photos, and date range user's albums

Search   Open

name
#photo
dates

name
#photo
dates

name
#photo
dates

Add   Rename   Delete   Logout

The inner AnchorPane represents the album itself (containing the ImageView and Labels).

Buttons that add, rename, and delete an album, respectively

Create Album

Button that lets user input a path to an image on their computer, and loads that image onto the TilePane to the right.

Create Album

name | TextField

Add photo

TilePane that holds the images that may be added to the new album

ImageView that shows the image

...

Create

Create button that adds the album to the album's list in user's albums

Search

Search button that returns photos that meet the criteria

Radiobuttons that determine the criteria. Both cannot be chosen.

Radiobuttons that determine the criteria for whether or not there will be a "single" or "double" tag search

Choicebox for "and" and "or," to allow for a disjunctive or conjuctive search

TilePane that contains the Photos

Create button that will take the search results and bring them to "Create Album"

Album (Displaying all Photos within Album)

ALBUM SPRING   back

caption   caption   caption

caption   caption   caption

delete   caption/recaption   copy/move   add photo

Add photo will let user input image path to add an image

Photo Display